3. Guest speaker Julie from CHEXS

CHEXS is a charity that works in the Borough of Broxbourne. CHEXS supports whole families to make sure they have aspirations and are in good health.

CHEXS often work with young people and help them get into volunteering and involved with the community. They also offer mentoring and work experience. CHEXS has asked for BYC to look over their website so we can keep it in mind to help refer if the BYC members ever notice someone struggling or are approached for help or if they themselves need any support.

A lot of the youth council members mentioned how they know of CHEXs as they have a positive presence at their secondary schools.

ACTION- CHEXS to send power point presentation over

4. Gabby's: Concern from School

Miss Gooddes' has approached Gabby to speak about the double yellow lines being re-painted outside the school. However as it is outside of school premises it would fall to HCC highways.

ACTION- Gabby to get some photos from the school and then we can contact Ed Fisher or find out who to contact from there.

5. Feeling Good Week Planning

Ethan and Gabby have drafted an email to send to MIND and shared it during the meeting. The youth council made some minor changes and all agreed it was okay to send off.

Julie has suggested looking at the YSG minuets as there may be a

Lloyd – Lucy from Growga has confirmed that she is happy to run a session for us. She has asked for it to be paid and the group has discussed and said they will offer her £35.
