Dear Robert,

I hope you are well.

Yesterday I uploaded Hertfordshire County County's representation to the above planning appeal at Fairmead, 90 Cuffley Hill, Goffs Oak to the PINS portal. However as stated I could not attach all the appendices due to the file size limit. Therefore please find below the remaining appendices that I did not upload through the planning inspectorate portal:

- Appendix Q: Inspiring Libraries Strategy can be found here (Unfortunately the file size is still too large to attach via email)
- Appendix E: map of the school planning area is attached

As stated, I have not included Appendix B as I assume that the Inspector will have access to the officer's report used to determine the application.

In the planning portal my representation is showing as both having been submitted and awaiting submission. While I have the automated receipt I would still be very grateful if you could confirm that the rest of the documentation was received before the 5pm deadline yesterday.

Please let me know if you have any issues or queries.

Best wishes,

Charlie Thompson
