To whom it may concern

Since moving in August 2022 mine and Alex's life has greatly improved. We moved from a toxic and unhappy place to a place we can call home. We can talk to anyone about anything without fear of judgment.

[REDACTED]

being able to live somewhere that makes us feel comfortable has helped an awful lot.

I would like to take this time to thank Rosie and Billy-Joe for helping us in our time of need and being there for us when it really mattered.

YOURS SINCERELY,

ALEX PINCHBECK
